About Us

Beginnings

Utah Hispanic Dance Alliance was formed in 2000 and is made up of folk dancers from throughout Utah who want to both preserve the ethnic dance traditions of Latin America and promote community inclusion as they showcase the excellence of Hispanic culture throughout dance.

UHDA Today

The highlight of UHDA's performing season is our annual "Latin America Dance Spectacular", 2014 held each year since 2000 in downtown Salt Lake City, an event which has been recognized by respected dance critics as "A Gem", and a "wonderful addition to Utah's diverse art scene", and "one of the most acclaimed cultural endeavors that Utah has to offer." Besides our large theater performances, UHDA also participates at various smaller presentations throughout including school events and assemblies, community cultural celebrations and private events.

Our Future

The members of UHDA hope to continue to dance for years to come, as they keep gaining more members who value and appreciate the influence of Latin America Dance. As we continue to gain new friends who love Latin American culture, performances will continue and the audience experience will keep getting better and better.
